

Bridging Unit Tasks: A-level Religious Studies: Philosophy & Ethics

Tasks

Review a film for its philosophical and moral message:

The Truman Show	Schindler's List
To Kill a Mocking Bird	Life of Pi
A Short Stay in Switzerland	The Big short
My Sister's Keeper	Life is Beautiful
Rogue Traders	Book of Eli

Things to read and review for their philosophic and moral message:

To Kill a Mocking Bird
The Blind Watchmaker
The God Delusion
Sophie's world
A matrix of meanings

Go to a place of religious interest and write a review:

Beth Shalom
Lincoln Cathedral
Southwell Minster
A place of religious significance you have visited e.g. on holiday

Essays to write

Research and respond to one of these statements. You could draw on prior knowledge or research a particular religious viewpoint about the issue. Christianity will be the main religion studied for the A-level at NSFC.

'Does God Exist' 'What happens when we die?'
'Is everyone equal?' 'When does a life lose its importance?'

Remember to:

- Show different points of view. Include scholars and evaluate each section.
- Use connectives to show how one idea flows to another (comparison or contrast)
- Make sure you apply each paragraph so it directly answers the set question.